

Appropriate Volunteer Conduct for Krum Public Library

Volunteers need to conform to the same standards as paid staff.

- Krum Public Library is a non-discriminatory organization. While working, you should respect the beliefs and lifestyles of the patrons, staff and volunteers. Additionally, you may not discriminate against any patron, staff or volunteer, based on their race, gender, ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation. Items in the library will represent a broad range of beliefs and attitudes.
- Krum Public Library is a department of the city. While working in the library volunteers represent the city. As such, they must refrain from criticizing or making derogatory comments about elected officials, city services, or other city employees.
- While you are working, please refrain from criticizing or complaining about job requirements, library policies, working conditions, patrons, volunteers, or co-workers.

* If you have any problems or issues, please see the Library Director for a meeting to discuss those issues.

*Failure to comply with these regulations may result in disciplinary action.

I have read and agree to abide by these regulations.
