The Krum Public Library will accept gifts, money, real property or stocks that are outright gifts. Any conditional gifts must be approved by the Krum Library Advisory Board and the City of Krum.

The Library Director will determine the best use of monies donated to the library. If money is donated in honor or in memory of someone, items will be purchased that best reflect that person's interests, as determined by the Library Director. Items may have book plates stating who is being honored. Monies may also be used for library programs, prizes, or other items for the library.

Patrons donating material items to the library will be told that the library reserves the right to decide how best to use the items. The items may be sold or donated to other libraries, or they may be placed in the collection if they meet the library's collection development policy.
